Chamber of Commerce Welcomes First Real Estate Firm to be Based on Santa Fe's South Side

Santa Fe—Santa Fe Wild West Properties was welcomed into the local business community by the Santa Fe Chamber of Commerce at a ribbon-cutting ceremony last week. Chamber members gathered at the new Wild West office in the heart of La Cienega, at the intersection of West Frontage Road and Los Pinos Road, to celebrate the grand opening of the new office.

“We’re the first real estate agency to be based on Santa Fe’s south side,” said Rosemary “Posy” Thompson, a co-founder and the qualifying broker at the firm. “Our company’s primary focus is on working with sellers and buyers in communities such as Tierra Contenta, Vista Primera, La Cienega, La Cienegilla, Rancho Viejo, Nava Ade and along Highway 14.”

Chamber Welcomes Wild West Properties -- add one

Thompson is a 28-year real estate veteran and a Certified Economic Developer who had spent much of her professional career working with members of rural communities.

Other founding members of the company are Thompson's daughter Amy Fairchild and her husband, Brian. The Fairchilds are native Santa Feans who recently went through the process of becoming first-time homebuyers in Tierra Contenta and are anxious to share their experience and knowledge with others.

"A lot of people think they can't own a home in Santa Fe. We know first hand that this is a myth," says Amy. "Our goal is to empower people so they can realize the dream of home ownership."

"We're delighted to welcome Santa Fe Wild West Properties to the south side," said SF Chamber president Simon Brackley. "This area is experiencing exciting changes as Santa Fe grows, and we're glad to have this professional real estate team involved in helping people who will live and work here," he added.

Just before the Chamber ribbon cutting, Santa Fe Wild West Properties also presented a $1,000 check to Santa Fe Equestars, a nonprofit therapeutic riding program.

The new real estate firm also donated 600 pounds of Meow Mix to the Santa Fe Animal Shelter and Humane Society and is a sponsor of their annual the "Barkin' Ball fundraising event.

"We are true animal lovers," said Thompson, pointing out that Santa Fe Wild West Properties also has a "Pet Friendly" link on their Web site that offers free samples of "Petzels" from treats4pets.com.
