New Real Estate Agency Donates 600 Pounds of Cat Food to Animal Shelter

Santa Fe—“Yee-ow!” was the response Santa Fe Wild West Properties received from the cats at the Santa Fe Animal Shelter and Humane Society when they received a donation of 600 pounds of Meow Mix from Santa Fe’s newest real estate agency.

The human response from the Animal Shelter and Humane Society came from Development Director Barbara Cohn who said, “Wow! Thank you — this is a very generous donation that was urgently needed.”

Veteran real estate broker Rosemary “Posy” Thompson, co-founder and qualifying broker of Santa Fe Wild West Properties, said she has an inside track to the generous CEO of Meow Mix, and was able to make arrangements for the contribution.

The other two partners of Santa Fe Wild West Properties are Amy and Brian Fairchild. “We admire the work being done by the folks at the Animal Shelter we and are committed to helping them, whether a donation of food or sponsoring the “Barkin’ Ball, their annual fundraising event,” said Brian.

Thompson pointed out that Santa Fe Wild West Properties also has a “Pet Friendly” link on their Web site that offers free samples of “Petzels” from treats4pets.com. “We are true animal lovers,” says Thompson.

The firm also recently made a $1,000 cash donation to Santa Fe Equestars, a nonprofit organization that provides therapeutic riding and equine related activities at the Santa Fe Horse Park.

Santa Fe Wild West Properties is the first real estate firm to be located on Santa Fe’s south side and is ready to assist clients with all of their real estate needs. Areas of concentration include the communities of Tierra Contenta, Vista Primera, La Cienega, La Cienegilla, Rancho Viejo, Nava Ade’ and along Highway 14.
